The Noise 02 blasts through the night with 500 lumens of focused light, illuminating the road ahead and not the trees above! Confidently take on the elements with the Noise's solid, sealed construction that earns it an impressive IPX4 water resistance rating. A built-in battery level indicator makes sure you arrive home with power to spare. Battery runs at full power for 2 hours for fast downhill and an impressive 11 hours on low for LONG urban commutes. Attractively packed and complete with handlebar and helmet mounts, it's a perfect present for roadies, commuters and mountain bikers alike. Built to last, we've given the Noise 02 an industry leading five-year warranty.
